

Please, do not change the Wisconsin DO NOT CALL Law. Since being on this list my evening have returned to being peaceful like they were before telemarketing began. The telemarketing calls I did receive were annoying, unwanted and many appeared to be attempts to trick people into giving them money. Please allow the State of Wisconsin to continue to give us protection from these calls.